Cleveland City Hall

The In Tribute to the Public Service Award was established in 1985 by the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs Visiting Committee to honor individuals who demonstrate exemplary leadership in public life and contribute significantly to the betterment of the community.

A SALUTE TO ALEXANDER M. (SANDY) CUTLER
CHAIRMAN, CEO AND PRESIDENT
EATON CORPORATION

Alexander M. (Sandy) Cutler is chairman, chief executive officer and president of Eaton Corporation, an $8.1 billion diversified industrial manufacturer based in Cleveland, OH. He assumed his current position in August 2000, after serving as Eaton's president and chief operating officer since 1995.

Mr. Cutler began his career with Cutler-Hammer, Inc. in 1975, and became business group controller in 1977. After Eaton acquired Cutler-Hammer, he was made a division controller in 1979 and, in 1980, was appointed plant manager of the Atlanta Assembly Plant.

In 1982, he became division manager of the Power Distribution Division and, in April 1985, was appointed general manager of the Industrial Control and Power Distribution Operations in the United States. In 1986, he was elected president of the Industrial Group and, in 1989, was promoted to president of Eaton's Controls Group. He was elected executive vice president—Operations in 1991 and executive vice president and chief operating officer—Controls in 1993 before assuming the position of Eaton's president and chief operating officer in 1995.

Mr. Cutler is a board member of KeyCorp, Axcelis Technologies, the Amos Tuck School of Business Administration at Dartmouth College, the Loomis Chaffee School, the Electrical Manufacturers Club, and the Musical Arts Association. He is also a member of the Yale University Development Board, the Yale Alumni Association of Cleveland, and currently serves as the first chairman of the Greater Cleveland Partnership.

Previously, he served as president of the Yale Alumni Association of Cleveland, and was a member of the board of the Yale University Alumni Fund and the National Electrical Manufacturers Association. Mr. Cutler also served on the executive committees of the Northeast Ohio Council on Higher Education (formerly the Cleveland Commission on Higher Education), the Visiting Committee of the Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve University, the Cleveland Play House, the Greater Cleveland Growth Association, and the Museum of Natural History. He is a past chairman of the National Electrical Manufacturers Association and Greater Cleveland's United Way Services 2003 Campaign. He is also past co-chairman of the Cleveland Commission on Economic Partnerships and Inclusion.

Mr. Cutler received a Bachelor of Arts from Yale University and a Master of Business Administration from the Amos Tuck School of Business Administration at Dartmouth College.♦♦♦
